

MELUKAT

“Balinese Hindu Blessing on the occasion of your anniversary”

Melukat is part of the Manusa Yadnya (holy sacrifice dedicated to human being) ceremony. The Melukat ceremony can be performed, according to the situation needs and goals. Melukat is a cleansing and purification ritual in the spiritual and physical meaning as it is written in the Manawa Dharmasastra manuscript. The day begins with a one hour Balinese massage at our Parwathi Spa. While you are being changed into a Balinese traditional dress, the offerings will be prepared. Our hotel car will bring you to the Pemuteran Temple where the blessing will be held by a: “Pemangku” (Balinese Priest). Our Temple servant will guide you and explain the symbolic meaning of the blessing.

The duration of the ceremony is approximately 1 hour, followed by planting a tree in our tropic garden to memorialize the event. Finish this unforgettable day with a 5 course Candle Light dinner at one of our romantic pavilions.
